Translation of Letter Received

My clients Chih Vi Zai, Yau Hau Zung, Yau Kung Ts, representatives of the Hou Sung Mill workers in last July made representations to the management for the resumption of work and indemnity.

This orgination is registered with the Kuomingtang and the Social Bureau and the representatives names and photos are also filed with them.

They have now rented No. 4 Hou Sung Li, Hochien Road, and called this place The Workers Representatives Office, so that meeting can be held to discuss the livelihood of the workers but, nothing illegal or of a disturbing nature will be done. They request me to write to you with reference to this. It is allowed by law for people to hold meetings, and this orgination has already been authorised by the above mentioned parties and this office is considered essential for the workers cause, so I write this to inform you of the address, so that they can find ways and means to present demands to the management for the solution of various problems.
